

DECEMBER 2021

Event highlights in December included the 'Gin & Salami Night' on 4th December and the 'Mulled Wine & Mince Pies Afternoon' on 11th December, followed by live music in the evening, supplied by The Cane Toads (pictured right).

We wait to discover what Covid-19 will throw at us in 2022. Table service has been resumed in the Clubhouse and all sensible measures are in place to keep you and your fellow members safe and well.

This month's bulletin is short and sweet. I guess everyone has been too busy partying, or holidaying, to submit anything for editing. So, my job this month has been extremely easy. Which leads me nicely into an invitation to any aspiring editors amongst you. ...

I've decided to throw in the towel after 2 years of producing the bulletin - this will be my last one. I believe the time has come for some fresh ideas and enthusiasm. So, I invite anyone who is interested to contact the Commodore in good time for the January 2022 edition.

A big thank you to all contributors who have taken the time to submit material during the last 24 months. I've enjoyed reading your articles and I know readers of the bulletin have too, especially in these difficult, isolated times.

Wishing you all the very best for a happy and healthy 2022 !
