

Croeso and welcome to the summer 2022 edition of RWYC Caernarfon's quarterly bulletin. This edition will be a bit shorter than usual, as all of the fantastic events we experienced together over a brilliant summer season will be appearing in detail as special features in our upcoming 2023 yearbook. But for now, please enjoy the highlights from our 175th anniversary celebrations and some great memories of our part in the 2022 Menai Strait Regattas.

The RWYC 175th Anniversary Dinner Dance

Saturday 25th July 2022

We had a fantastic turnout and a lively atmosphere for our much-anticipated anniversary celebrations at the Celtic Royal Hotel, with our members and guests being wined and dined before boogieing the night away to the great live band Sound City. With a proportion of the proceeds from ticket sales going to the RNLI, it was a brilliant evening for a very worthy cause.

The Menai Strait Regattas 2022

1st-13th August 2022

The club played a key role in this year's Menai Strait Regattas with trophies won (well done to Blue Nose for winning the Crosbeian Cup!) and many competitive sailing and rowing races keenly participated in by our members. Our clubhouse was also running like a well-oiled machine, with thanks to Eric Crowther and his team of race officials on the rooftop, as well as our dedicated team of volunteers led by Social Secretary Fi Jones and Mo Judge for keeping everyone fed and watered. We also provided a warm welcome for our guests from the Royal Anglesey Yacht Club when we hosted them.
